LOOKING AHEAD

SUNDAY, MARCH 6, 1988 -- Mary Walter, York County Courthouse Archivist, will present the program. She is the first person serving in this position. She will describe her work in the "fourth floor" of the courthouse, the conditionss and types of records located there, plans for the future of the records, and how volunteers will be needed to help with the work of organizing the records.

The business portion of the meeting will begin at 2:15 p.m. and the program at about 2:30 p.m. The meeting site is the Asbury United Methodist Church at 340 E. Market Street, York, PA. This church is about one block east of The Historical Society of York County. The doors of the church will be opened about 2:00 p.m. for the meeting. Parking can be done in the lot on the west side of the church. This lot is entered from market Street. If this lot is full, you may pass through it, go left on Reinecke Place, and park on the lot that is a short distance on the right. If places are available, parking along Market Street may be preferable and closer to the church entrance attendees will be using. Enter the church from Market Street, using the door nearest the parking lot west of the church.

APRIL, 1988 -- No meeting. (A bus trip to Washington DC will take the place of a meeting this month.)

DECEASED MEMBER

August, 1987 - Mrs. Judith Beery Garber, 170 Miller Ave., #2, Mill Valley, CA 94941. She was the first Life member in the Society, she was 95 yrs. old.

RESEARCH TRIP TO WASHINGTON DC -- Friday, April 8, 1988

The SCPGS will sponsor a research trip to Washington DC on Friday, April 8, 1988. A 39-passenger coach, with restroom facilities, has been contracted for the day. The bus will leave the Queensgate Shopping Center parking lot at 6:30 a.m. Upon arrival in DC the bus will make three stops (National Archives Building, Library of Congress, DAR Building) and people may leave the bus at whichever one of the three stops they individually choose. During the day people may go from one research center to any other research center as they so choose by walking or using DC public transportation. Of course you may also do sightseeing. In the evening all people will board the bus as a group at about 6:00 p.m. at a site on the Mall near the National Archives Building. Those making the trip will be responsible for their noon and evening meals while in DC. The bus will not stop on the way home after leaving Washington DC. The transportation fee for each person is $14. Those who register will receive more detailed information within a week of the trip. Registration should be done as soon as possible but no later than March 18. Payment should be made no later than April 1. To register for the trip send a letter to the society or call Pat Gross at (717) 843-6169. Also, if you have any questions about the trip call Pat. People who register do not need to be SCPGS members.

HIVELY'S GENEALOGICAL NOTES

Franklin and Marshall College, located at Lancaster, PA, celebrated its bicentennial in 1987. As part of that celebration, a portion of its collection of Fraktur was put on exhibit during October 1987. To accompany this exhibit, a twenty-nine page guide, Fraktur: A Selective Guide to the Franklin and Marshall Fraktur Collection, was published. This guide contains three essays related to Fraktur and also the transcriptions and the translations of the 42 documents which were on exhibit. Color reproductions of twelve of the documents appear in the guide. Of the 42 documents exhibited, 22 were "Birth and Baptismal" Fraktur. Copies of the guide are available for $6. Even those with no ancestors associated with the documents may find the guide of interest. Make check payable to Franklin and Marshall College and send order to Carol Faill (College Collections, Franklin and Marshall College, P. O. Box 3003, Lancaster, PA 17604).

Listed below are some of the names and some of the other information associated with the above "Birth and Baptismal" Fraktur. Given is the child's name, the parents' names, the year of birth, and the county in Pennsylvania.

Volume X of the Sources and Documents of the Pennsylvania Germans of The Pennsylvania German Society (P. O. Box 397, Birdsboro, PA 19508) is now available. Its title is Records of Purchases at the King George Hotel, Schaefferstown, Lebanon County, Pennsylvania, 1762-1773. Orders should be sent to the above address. The cost is $15 plus postage and handling plus tax for Pa residents, but payment should not be sent with the order. Purchasers will be billed.

The above volume begins with an introduction which includes information on Alexander Schaeffer and his family, on Schaefferstown, and on The King George Hotel. The entire account book was transcribed from the German, and where necessary, a translation is given. The many objects and potions mentioned in the accounts are identified in an appendix. This volume provides insight into the operations of a hotel and store at this early time period. Especially valuable for genealogists are the many names mentioned. Some individuals carried on extensive dealings with Scheaffer's business. The following is a limited list of some surnames occurring in the account: Miller, Keller, Besch, Schweitzer, Taxis, Peffer, Wolfersperger, Wiest, Holstein, Bernhart, Brecht, Albrecht, Bollinger, Meyer, Endres, Seltzer, Stumpff, Iba, Lautermilch, Reger, Conrad, Trautman, Schaub, Lineweber, and Cesinger.

The Society for German-American Studies is holding its 1988 Symposium at Millersville University, Millersville, Lancaster Co., PA, April 28-30. Several other organizations with German interests are also participating. They are The Pennsylvania German Society, The German Society of Pennsylvania, The Lancaster Mennonite Historical Society, The Johannes Schwalm Historical Society, The Mid-Atlantic Germanic Society, The Pennsylvania Chapter of Palatines to America, and The Lancaster County Historical Society. (Some of these organizations will be holding their annual meetings at this symposium and will not be holding separate annual spring meetings.) Professor Don Yoder will be the keynote speaker. The major emphasis of the Symposium will be the origins and influence of the German element in Pennsylvania on American culture. Over fifty papers will be presented by various speakers in numerous concurrent sessions on Friday and on Saturday morning. For more information on the Symposium, persons who are not members of any of the above groups, should send a SASE to Center for Pennsylvania German Studies (Wickersham Hall, Millersville University, Millersville, PA 17551; phone (717) 872-3526 and request registration and housing information, a list of program topics, and any other available information. Registration is available for one, two, or three days of attendance. The registration deadline is given as March 15. Meals can also be reserved if desired. Saturday afternoon van tours are also available to select Lancaster County historical sites.

Volume 7 in the series, Maryland German Church Records, is now available. (Volumes 4, 5, and 6 are not published at this time.) Volume 7 is Saint Mary's Church, Silver Run, Carroll County: Lutheran Records 1784-1863 Reformed Records 1812-1866. By May 31, 1762, those Germans living near the Silver Run, which flows westerly into the Big Pipe Creek (in what became Myers District No. 6 of Carroll County) had erected a church. In 1768 the Congregations acquired the land on which their church already stood. In addition to the traditional church records for the years indicated, this volume includes the 1762 constitution, with the names of the first members. This 119 page paperbook volume is $20. Shipping costs are $1.50 and Maryland residents need to add 5% for sales tax. Order from Noodle-Doosey Press (P. O. Box 716, Manchester, MD 21102). Also available from the same publisher is Uniontown, Maryland - A Walking Tour at $10 and Carroll's Heritage: Essays on the Architecture of a Piedmont Maryland County at $16.95.

SCPGS members with interest in western Pennsylvania families might be interested in The Western Pennsylvania Genealogical Society (4118 Bigelow Blvd., Pittsburgh, PA 15213). This organization has interest groups, including a German Interest Group.

Rev. Eleazer Whittlesey may have been the first minister who lived in what is now York County, PA, who served Presbyterians residing in the extreme southeastern area of the county (now Peach Bottom and Lower Chanceford Townships) and the nearby adjacent area of Maryland. He served only a few years before he died in December 1752. The present Slate Ridge and Chanceford Presbyterian Churches have their origins in Rev. Whittlesey's congregation. Among the estate papers of Rev. Whittlesey is a paper which gives the names of at least some of the members of his congregation. The document's outside identification is "a Copy of Sundry Debts reced from Mr Whitlesays Congrega". Preceding the list is "Memorandum of what I received on Acct of Mr Whitlesies Steapings (= stipends)". Only the names are listed here but the original includes the amount each man contributed. (For a copy of this list send a SASE and $1 to the SCPGS.)

Hugh Whiteford	John Wallace	Andrew Davis
John Hill	William Wallace	Cunningham Sample
William Grydon	James Smith	Elias Cowan
Thomas Scott	George Farr	William Shaw
Moses Wallace	Robert Stewart	James Evans

Other names that occur in Rev. Whittlesey's estate papers are Robert Luckie, Roulent (Rowland) Hughes, Hugh Ross, John Edmonson, Robert Morton, and William Luckie.

Interestingly, Rev. Whittlesey was a native of New England and according to published materials of the Presbyterian Church he was a descendant of a Pilgrim family. York County deed book records (Book B, pages 207-212; power of attorney and an indenture) report that his eldest brother was Jabez Whittlesey of Weathersfield, Massachusetts. Rev. Whittlesey's property, located in what was then Chanceford Township, but now apparently in Lower Chanceford Township, was sold in December 1763 to John Finley, tavernkeeper of Chanceford Township.
