LOOKING AHEAD

5 FEBRUARY - Our February meeting will be held in the Meeting Hall of The Historical Society of York County. Business portion of the meeting will begin at 2:15 p.m. and the program at 2:30.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints' genealogical film titled "For the Strength of the Hills" will be shown. Following this, Mrs. Marian Khona, Adminsitrator of the York LDS Stake Library, will talk briefly on the York Stake Library.

NOTES FROM THE PRESIDENT

The PA Chapter, Palatines to America, Fall 1983(September 17) meeting featured Herr Pfarrer Alfred Hans Kuby of Germany. (Herr Kuby spoke to the SCPGS the following day.) The transcripts of the three lectures given to the Palatines by Herr Kuby can be purchased for $8.00 a set (Plus 48¢ tax if a PA resident). Make check payable to PA Chapter, Palatines to America and mail to Mr. Leo R. Wastler, 25 Clover Lane, Mechanicsburg, PA 17055.

If you are interested in buying a new book by Werner Hacker, Kurpfalzische Auswanderer vom Unteren Neckar (Kurpfalz Emigrees from the Lower Neckar) write to Gary T. Hawbaker (Route 2, Box 409C, Elizabethtown, PA 17022) for information. The volume is in German but the names of some 2300 emigrants are listed in alphabetical order. A large number came to America.

The Pennsylvania Genealogical Magazine, published twice a year by the Genealogical Society of PA (1300 Locust Street, Philadelphia, PA 19107), continues to provide the valuable serial article "A Genealogist's Guide to Pennsylvania Records", compiler Helen Hutchison Woodroofe. This is a county-by-county guide to sources in the collections of that society and in certain generally available published sources. The series began in Volume XXXI (No. 2, 1979) with a General PA List, Adams County, and four other counties. The most recent issue (Volume XXXIII, No. 2, 1983) includes the counties of McKean, Mercer, Mifflin, Monroe, and Montour. Montgomery County, because of the large amount of sources available relating to it, will be published in the next issue. Even for those not now able to do research in the collection at Philadelphia, the list is very useful because it provides information on what resources are available. And if these lists are studied before visiting the collections, researchers should be able to make more efficient use of their time. Many libraries subscribe to the magazine. The Genealogical Society of Pennsylvania can not be expected to answer research requests by mail.

A notice in the November newsletter stated the need for help in indexing columns of Our Keystone Families. The positive response has been most gratifying. At this time we may not be able to involve all those who volunteered. We will try to use on a rotating basis as many as possible of those members. Also there are tentative plans for one or two other projects in which we may be able and happy to use some members who wanted to help with the above project.

I wish everyone enjoyable and successful researching in 1984.

David P. Hively
