HIVELY'S GENEALOGICAL NOTES

SCPGS member Helen Stambaugh Olson (P. O. Box 224, Bushnell, IL 61422) has completed her book Stambaugh and Allied Families, 1686-1986. The genealogy begins with migration to America in 1709 and continues into the 12th generation. The families studied descend from the five sons and one daughter of the immigrant. The book is indexed. Among the related families are Altland, Baublitz, Baum, Beecher, Bowman, Boyer, Brenneman, Brillhart, Danner, Deardorff, Dehoff, Emig, Feeser, Felty, Geiselman, Graybill, Hamm, Hildebrand, Hoffman, Hoke, Hoover, Kraft, Lau, Leese, Lucabaugh, Maul, Messersmith, Messinger, Miller, Mummert, Myers, Nace, Rebert, Rhinehart, Rohler, Rohrbaugh, Senft, Silar, Shaeffer, Spangler, Stover, Strausbaugh, Thoman, Throne, Wagman, Wildasin, and Zartman. (The author's father was born in York County, PA). The 500 page book is hard cover in type-set printing and 6 by 9 inch size. The cost is $40 postpaid.

Huggins Families of Western PA and Northern West Virginia will shortly be available from Charles E. Huggins (34 Old Mountain Road, Chattanooga, TN 37409). The book contains the history of several Huggins family lines whose ancestors settled in the areas of the title. It also contains information on the lines of Huggins families who settled in Lancaster County, PA, and later migrated into several other states. The 475 page book costs $25 postpaid.

The 1987 NGS Conference in the States was held in May, 1987 in Raleigh, North Carolina. Tape recordings were made of the talks presented at that conference by Triad (P. O. Box 120, Toulon, IL 61483). For a list of the available tapes and costs write to Triad.

Two publications of the National Genealogical Society (4527 17th Street, North, Arlington, VA 22207) have recently been reprinted. The one is NGS Publication No. 40, Index of Revolutionary War Pension Applications in the National Archives. For nonmembers of the NGS the cost is $45.50. The other is NGS Publication No. 23, Baptismal Records of Jerusalem Lutheran and Reformed Church, Berks County, Pennsylvania. For nonmembers the cost is $5.75. For both books, Virginia residents need to add 4.5 percent for sales tax.

A SCPGS member owns the "journal" of one Amos Stonesifer. Charles Amos Stonesifer was born 4 March 1834 in Carroll County, MD, to James and Rebecca Sheets Stonesifer. James later moved his family to Adams County, PA. Amos taught school and clerked in various clothing and dry-goods stores. He moved to Baltimore, resided in a boarding house and married Fannie Lewis of Ellicotts Mill (now Ellicott City), Maryland, on 4 March 1858. The journal refers to visits in Pennsylvania with relatives, the courtship of Fanny, the death of their first child, and the weather. He also describes the fire in Baltimore that took place on 15 March 1857 and which destroyed an entire block. Amos died by drowning on 5 August 1865 before the birth of his son Francis. Sons of Amos wrote a few pages in the journal after the death of their father. The "Amos Stonesifer Journal" has been published in the Spring 1987 (Vol. 28, No. 2) issue of the Bulletin of the Maryland Genealogical Society (201 West Monument Street, Baltimore, MD 21201). This issue can be purchased for $3.

The Friends Historical Library (Swarthmore College, Swarthmore, PA 19081) reports that staff time spent in responding to genealogical requests must be strictly limited. Researchers studying Quaker families are welcome to visit the library and make use of its many resources. The hours are 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. weekdays and 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. on Saturdays when the College is in session.

The library is closed during the month of August. For more information and a list of researchers who work in the collection, write the library and ask for the information letter. Make certain to include a SASE.

Annette K. Burgert (AKB Publications, 691 Weavertown Road, Myerstown, PA 17067) has published No. 7 in her monograph series. Its title is Emigrants from Eppingen to America in the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Centuries. Many of the 400 persons listed came to America in the 1800's. The cost is $10 plus $1.50 for postage and handling. Pa residents need to add 6% sales tax.

SCPGS Special Publication #33 was An Abstract of the 1865 York County, Pennsylvania, Assessors Military Roll. Some entries for the men listed in this publication contain the notation, "substitute 3 years". The PA Archives at Harrisburg has records which will give, in many of these cases, the name of the individual's substitute. If the "substitute's deposition" is also part of the record, the place of residence of the substitute is often given. It appears that many of the substitutes were not from York County. The same source also contains the names of conscientious objectors. Similar information is available for some of the other counties of PA but for these other counties the information may not be as complete as it is for York County. This information is microfilmed and is part of Record Group 19. The most useful source for York County material is "Records of the Department of Military Affairs, Drafted Men and Substitutes, 1862", Microfilm Rolls 498-501. The information is listed by county and York County material is on roll 501. The York County material is listed alphabetically by townships. A related source of material is "Records of the Department of Military Affairs, Office of Adjutant General, Substitutes' Depositions, 1862", Microfilm Rolls 502-504. NOTE: In SCPGS Special Publication #33 numerous entries carry the notation, "substitute 9 months". The above source does not provide any information as to who was the substitute in such cases.

Many SCPGS members have published family genealogies. Most likely numerous other members are contemplating such a project. Since publishing a comprehensive family genealogy is not an easy undertaking, perhaps some members who have recently completed such a publication would be willing to write about their experiences. Experiences reported in letters received could be organized and shared, which could help advise other members who are planning to publish in the future. So if you are "published", what advice would you give? Information could include cost and method of printing, number copies sold, how book was publicized, unexpected problems encountered, aspects of the project you would do differently a "second time around", etc.

The Volume XXXV No. 1 (1987) issue of The Pennsylvania Genealogical Magazine continues the series, "A Genealogist's Guide to Pennsylvania Records", which lists by county, records in the collections of the Genealogical Society of Pennsylvania (1300 Locust Street, Philadelphia, PA 19107). This issue lists records for the counties of Venango, Warren, Washington, Wayne, Westmoreland, and Wyoming. The issue also contains about 75 "Baptisms from the Church Book of the German Reformed Church of Philadelphia". These baptisms were by the Rev. Friedrich S. Rothenbueler in 1762 and 1763. There is also a continuation of the "Great Valley Presbyterian Church Cemetery, Chester County, Pennsylvania".

The Pennsylvania Chapter, Palatines to America, will hold its Fall 1987 Meeting on October 3, 1987 at Messiah College. Two sessions will be presented by Rev. Paul M. Ruff of Aliquippa, PA. Rev. Ruff is knowledgeable about the German families of western PA and their church records, which he has translated. A retired Lutheran minister, he is Field Archivist of the Southwestern PA Lutheran Synod. His presentation will be "The German Settlements of Western Pennsylvania" and "Records of the German Churches of Western Pennsylvania". The other two sessions will be presented by Henry Z (Hank) Jones. Mr. Jones has published numerous books and articles on history and genealogy. The most significant is the monumental two volume work, The Palatine Families of New York. Mr. Jones spent sixteen years of research on the 847 German families who arrived in 1710, with an emphasis on finding the home villages of these immigrants. This work won the "Donald Lines Jacobus Prize" as the best genealogical work of 1986. Hank Jones has been elected a Fellow of the American Society of Genealogists. In his "other life", Hank Jones, a resident of Universal City, CA, has been a film and TV actor for 25 years. His presentation will cover two sessions and is titled, "The Palatine Families of New York - Or How to Trace 847 German Families Here and Abroad Via Documented Sources (And Still Stay Relatively Sane)". To receive a registration form for this meeting, nonmembers of the PA Chapter, Palatines to America, should send a request with SASE to Mr. & Mrs. M. Fred Coffman (30 Grouse Road, Malvern, PA 19355).

Anyone interested in the furnishings, by room, of the home of a well-to-do lawyer of York, PA, who died in 1845, might wish to study the inventory of James Lewis, Esq. The individual furnishings are not described in detail but are listed by room groupings: front parlor, back parlor, front room 2nd story, middle room 2nd story, kitchen, cellar, back room 3rd story, etc.

The inventory also lists in detail the places where a person of Mr. Lewis' wealth invested his money: numerous bank, railroad, and turnpike stocks as well as bonds, notes, judgements, and "single bills" against many individuals. The total inventory amount was $153,471.85. A copy of the inventory as well as the will (combined total of 21 pages) of Esquire Lewis may be had by sending $4 to the SCPGS. (James Lewis was the son of Major Eli Lewis, founder of the town of Lewisberry in York County, PA. He married Jane, daughter of Charles A. Barnitz, and had one child, Margaret Jane, who according to his will was born "on the first day of January 1840".)

Registration in PROVINCIAL FAMILIES OF MARYLAND is open to all sons and daughters of Colonial maryland regardless of race, color, or creed through natural descent or legal adoption. Applicants are required to submit a written application proving to the satisfaction of the Examining Board descent from an ancestor resident in the Province of Maryland prior to 4 July 1776. Additional information and applications may be requested from Mrs. Mark K. Meyer (5179 Perry Road, Mt. Airy, MD 21771).
