OUR NAME'S THE GAME

Monthly Newsletter of The South Central Pennsylvania Genealogical Society, Inc.

Vol. 9 No. 11 June, 1984

LOOKING AHEAD

JULY/AUGUST - No Monthly meeting will be held during the summer months of July and August. However, the Society Officers and Board of Directors will be meeting and our various Committees will be performing their regular functions.

One summer issue of Our Name's The Game will be published in place of a July and August issue. Look for it in early August. It will include specifics on the September 9 meeting.

REMINDER - IF YOU HAVE NOT YET PAID YOUR DUES

Membership renewals are now due for the 1 July 1984 - 30 June 1985 Fiscal Year. This will be your LAST issue, unless dues are paid for the year 1984-1985.

NOTES FROM THE PRESIDENT

The Adams County Historical Society (Drawer A, Gettysburg, PA 17325) has announced publication of a new book, Taxables, The Low Dutch Settlement of the Conewago, York County, PA 1762-1799. The author, Arthur Weaner, using all known pre-1800 tax lists, has compiled what is announced as the most accurate list of those of the Conewago settlement of Holland Dutch origin. Included is additional information on the families from sources such as the baptismal register, deeds, wills, tombstones inscriptions, and the 1783 petition concerning Kentucky land. There is also evidence of the subsequent appearance of some families in New York and Kentucky. The book of 94 pages is printed by the ditto process and bound in a plastic ring binder. The cost by mail is $9.25.

According to the compiler, Bernard French Freeland (220 Fourth St., Del Mar, CA 92014), future issue Number 11 of the newsletter Freeland and Allied Families will contain research on the Freeland families of Shrewsbury Township, York County, PA and Freeland, Baltimore County, MD from about 1750-1910.

Bruce F. Beacher (RD 2, P.O. Box 353, Biglerville, PA 17307) is editor of Beau-Chere, a newsletter relating to the Beacher (and numerous other spellings) surname.

Marian A. Khona is the present administrator of the genealogical research library of the Gettysburg-York Stake of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (2100 Hollywood Drive, York, PA; phone number (717) 854-9331). Usual library hours are Tuesdays 5:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m., Wednesdays 9 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. and Saturdays 9 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Because of staffing changes, bad weather, and other occurrences, library hours may be subject to significant variation and those planning to use the facility may wish to call the library before visiting.

Raymond B. Clark, Jr. (Box 352, St. Michaels, MD 21663) is editor of the Maryland and Delaware Genealogist. He sells such research items as Baltimore Co. MD Tax Lists 1699-1706; Frederick Co., MD Naturalizations 1785-1789; MD Revolutionary Records: How to Find Them and Interpret Them. For a price list and other titles send a SASE to the above address.

The latest report indicates that the public research room at the PA State Archives will be open to researchers before July 1, 1984. Call before making the trip!

Effective May 29, 1984 the Philadelphia Branch of the National Archives has moved to a new address: Archives Branch, 9th & Market Streets, Room 1350, Philadelphia, PA 19107. The phone number is (215) 597-3000. Hours are Monday through Friday 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and first and third Saturdays 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

The SCPGS continues to buy genealogical records for the HSYC library since we use without charge the historical society's facilities for Board and Membership meetings. SCPGS members are encouraged to use the following publications which have been contributed during the 1983-1984 SCPGS fiscal year.

(1) A Practical Guide to Dating Systems for Genealogists by Kenneth L. Smith;
(2) Volume 8 Sources and Documents: Records of Pastoral Acts at Emmanuel Lutheran Church (The Warick Congregation) near Brickerville, Lancaster County, 1743-1810, PA German Society;
(3) Genealogical Queries & Reports of Research, 1982-1983 Project of PA Chapter, Palatines to America;
(4) Numbers 1-6 of European Origins Monographs series by Annette K. Burgert;
(5) Some twenty church records of the Allemangel area of Berks and Lehigh Counties of PA as compiled by Warren J. Ziegler;
(6) New Microfilm copies of the 1860 and 1870 Federal Censuses of York and Adams Counties of PA.

Bibliographies can be very useful for directing a researcher to source materials. Those working on German ancestry who have never used Emil Meynen's compilation may want to peruse a copy in the nearest library having the volume in its collection. The title (as reprinted by Genealogical Publishing Company, Inc., Baltimore, MD, 1982) is Bibliography on the Colonial Germans of North America Especially the Pennsylvania Germans and Their Descendants. The original work was published in 1937 as Bibliography on German Settlements in Colonial North America.

I wish to end this month with a simple but sincere THANK YOU to all the SCPGS Board Members and Committee Members who so faithfully, tirelessly, and capably supported and worked for the organization this past year. The SCPGS could not serve its membership with programs and publications without the dedication of this small group of people. Also I thank all the SCPGS "genealogical friends" who supported the organization with their memberships during 1983-1984. I wish next year's officers and other leaders a successful year. I am certain it will be interesting.
