HIVELY'S GENEALOGICAL NOTES

A Guide to the Genealogical Materials of The Hauck Memorial Library Housed in The Lebanon County Historical Society 1984, prepared by William E. Smith and Lenora Adam, is available from The Lebanon County Historical Society (924 Cumberland Street, Lebanon, Pennsylvania 17042). The 64 page booklet contains sections covering church records in the collection for Lebanon County and other counties, cemetery records for Lebanon County and other counties, cataloged family genealogy publications, Lebanon County newspapers, city and county records, and a list of surnames for which there is some material in the family files. The cost is $5 plus $1 for postage and handling, and for PA residents, an additional 6% sales tax charge.

Those people who have interest in the "1709" Palatines to New York should be pleased to know that the research on these families conducted for many years by Henry Z. (Hank) Jones should be available in published form about the last of June. Even those without known ancestry to these families may find the material of great value and interest. The material on these families is so extensive that the publication is two volumes totaling 1350 pages. In addition to documented information on the first few generations of the families in America, there is significant German information on over 500 of the 847 families. In the 1720's a significant number of these families came to Pennsylvania. In addition to 1200 pages of detailed genealogies, there are sections on the historical background of the Palatines, illustrations, reproductions of important Palatine documents, a list of sources, a name and place index of over 80 pages, and a chapter on "the lessons learned". Included is previously unpublished material from Germany, Holland, and American archives. The cost of the two volumes of The Palatine Families of New York is $85 plus $4.50 for postage and handling and orders should be sent to Hank Jones (PO Box 8341, Universal City, CA 91609).

Those interested in early land records of northern Virginia may be interested in recent publications by Peggy S. Joyner (5008 Dogwood Trail, Portsmouth, VA 23703). The two volumes presently available are Abstracts of Virginia Northern Neck Warrants and Surveys, Orange and Augusta Counties with Tithables, Delinquents, Petitioners, 1730-1754, Volume I and Abstracts of Virginia's Northern Neck Warrants and Surveys, Frederick County, 1747-1780, Volume II. The first volume is $15 and the second is $25, including postage and handling. Since many residents of Pennsylvania went down the Shenandoah Valley, at least a few of them should be in these volumes.

Those interested in supporting an organized effort to collect and preserve the history of the family and descendants of 1748 immigrant John Henry LaMotte should contact Theodore Krug (1000 Hillside View Road, Parkton, MD 21120) for more information. John Henry LaMotte came with his wife and step-son Joseph Bollinger. His burial place has recently been found in the private cemetery behind the restored stone Bollinger homestead near Lineboro, MD.

Copies of Three Centuries with the Rosenberger-Rosenberry Family 1698-1983 remain available for purchase. For the publication a serious effort was made to trace all descendants, both male and female lines, of Abraham and Juliana Lang Rosenberger, beginning in 1750. Allied families are Bashore, Fields, Forrester, Guyer, Horn, Keefer, Kuhn, Mackey (McKee), Rexroth and Witherow. The book contains 990 pages, including 835 illustrations and a 50-page index. The regular edition costs $50 plus $5 for postage and handling and PA residents must add 6% sales tax. Order the book from Myra Fields (358 Lincoln Way West, Chambersburg, PA 17201).

The Third Annual Meeting of The Baughman Burying Ground Association of Bart Township, Lancaster, PA is scheduled for July 13, 1985. A work party will be held in the morning until noon. For more information about this cemetery consult the NOTES section of the July/August 1984 issues of this newsletter.

SCPGS member Carol Willsey Bell (4649 Yarmouth Lane, Youngstown, OH 44512) continues to publish new materials on Ohio and to revise some of her previous publications on Ohio. For a brochure listing her available publications send a SASE to her at the above address.

Those interested in the Crowl (Crowel/Crowell/Crall/Croll/Crile/Croyle/Grall/Groll/Grauel/Graul/Krall/Krauel/Kraul and other possible spellings of the name) may wish to join the "Crowl Connections" Family Association. Membership is $10 a year. A newspaper is published four times a year. Send inquiries to SCPGS member Gail Komar (9603 Bel Glade St., Fairfax, VA 22031).

Mrs. Komar is also trying to reorganize the James McCue family reunion and is looking for "lost" descendants. The reunion will be held in New Philadelphia, Ohio on August 17, 1985. To find out more details about the reunion or to learn if you may be a descendant of James McCue (born 1791 in Ireland and died 1846 in Tuscarawas County, OH), write to Mrs. Komar at the above address.

The Historical Society of York County has received as a donation from Dallco Industries of York an 18-month old IBM mainframe computer. Plans are to use this computer to store the society's genealogical information. The process of inputting the data is expected to begin as soon as terminals and software are available. Although entering all the data will be a long process, the final result should be very valuable to genealogical research.

For those with interest in Irish genealogy, The Genealogy Bookshop (3 Nassau Street, Dublin 2, Ireland) advertises that a free mail order brochure /booklist will be sent.

The latest issue of The Pennsylvania Genealogical Magazine (Volume XXXIII, Number 4, 1984) continues the series "A Genealogist's Guide to Pennsylvania Records". The counties featured in the issue are Northampton, Northumberland, and Perry.

The SCPGS continues to buy volumes useful to genealogists for the library of The Historical Society of York County because the SCPGS uses without charge the historical society's facilities for Board and Membership Program Meetings. SCPGS members are encouraged to use the following purchases which have been contributed during the 1984-1985 SCPGS Fiscal Year.
