OUR NAME'S THE GAME

Monthly Newsletter of the South Central Pennsylvania Genealogical Society, Inc.

Vol. 12 No. 11 June, 1987

LOOKING AHEAD

JULY/AUGUST - No monthly meetings will be held during the summer months of July and August. However, officers and committee members will continue performing their regular functions.

One summer issue of Our Name's The Game will be published in place of a July and August issue. Members should be receiving it in early August.

REMINDER

MEMBERSHIP RENEWALS ARE NOW DUE for the 1 July 1987 to 30 June 1988 Fiscal Year. This will be your last issue unless dues are paid before the next mailing deadline.

UPDATE - HSYC LIBRARY

As previously reported, The Historical Society of York County has begun an extensive renovation of its main building. Because of this, the library has been moved from its second floor location to the Meeting Hall on the first floor. A mini library - one with the most important genealogical material intact - is now firmly in place and open for use.

Librarian Robbi Hudson, her staff and the faithful library volunteers have done an excellent job - both in setting up the "temporary" library and in choosing the research materials that can be accommodated in the Meeting Hall area. Out-of-state members planning research trips to the S.C.P.G.S. area in the upcoming months need not be concerned - no basic York County genealogical research materials have been placed in storage. The Church & Cemetery Records, Family Files, Vital Stat Files, Microfilm Collection (Tax, Census, Etc. records), Genealogies/Family History books, etc. - are here in the "temporary" library.

Library hours for June, July & August are: Monday, Thursday, Friday & Saturday - 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday & Wednesday - 9 a.m. to 8:30 p.m.

MAY QUERY ADDRESS CHANGE

HIVELY'S GENEALOGICAL NOTES

SCPGS member Elsie Swartz Eberhart (4141 N. Rockton Av. B-31, Rockford, IL 61103) has published Three Swartz/Schwartz Men of Floyd and Clark Counties, Indiana --- Michael, John, and Christopher. The book spans a period of about 200 years, covering locations in Germany, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Indiana, Missouri, Kansas, Texas, Oregon and other states. The indexed volume of 463 pages is hardcover and contains 4300 first names and 950 surnames. The cost is $40 postpaid. Mrs. Eberhart previously published "Ancestry Trails, Swartz-Luther and Allied Families", which is no longer in print.

The latest issue of The Report (Volume XL, 1986) published by the Society for the History of the Germans in Maryland (P.O. Box 22585, Baltimore, MD 21203) contains some very interesting articles. One article, "Tradition and Continuity: One Society That Survived", gives a history of the Society for the History of the Germans in Maryland. Anyone who has German ancestors who came to America in the 1700's and especially those who survived the Atlantic crossing in 1738 will find the article, "The Emigration Season of 1738 -- Year of the Destroying Angel", most interesting. This article by Klaus Wust, the editor, is 36 pages in length. A third article is titled, "The Experience of Indentured Servants From Germany and Ireland: Guaranteed Employment, Educational Opportunity, or Last Resort?". A fourth article is "People of Choice: Decision Making in an Eighteenth Century Swiss-German Peasant Family". This article, by Leo Schelbert, investigates the family of Theodor or Durs Thommen, who left Niederdorf, parish of Waldenburg, Canton Basel, in 1736 for Pennsylvania. Some of this family associated with the Pietists at Ephrata and some returned to Europe. The article does "not explore the Thommen's full story, but one aspect only, the nature and context of their choices". For information on purchasing this publication, send a SASE to the above address.

The U. S. Postal Service will not allow delivery to American Genealogy Inc. of Scranton, PA, of any first class letters containing orders for the "Family Album". The Postal Service in its complaint alleged that the book did not represent a genealogical research of the consumer's family and contained generalized, basic genealogical information. The firm admitted that "Elizabeth Ross" was a fictitious name. The related injunction requires the company to accept all books returned by customers for a refund. Customer complaints should be sent to Postal Inspector Gary Claytor, Regional Chief Postal Inspector, P.O. Box 3000, Bala Cynwood, PA 19004-3609.

For information on abstracts of Virginia Court Records of Fairfax, King George, Loudoun, Madison, and Orange Counties write to Ruth and Sam Sparacio (1320 Mayflower Drive, McLean, VA 22101).

The Pennsylvania German Society (P.O. Box 397, Birdsboro, Pa 19508) has published another in its series Sources and Documents.

This volume is #11, Zion Lutheran Church, Harrisburg, 1796-1827 (Volumes 9 and 10 are in production.) The cost of each in print volume in the Sources and Documents series is $12.50 for members and $15 for nonmembers. In ordering these publications from The Pennsylvania German Society send no money. An invoice, including postage, handling, and sales tax amounts, will be sent to you with the order. Among other volumes in print from the above series are Friedrich Henrich Gelwicks -- Shoemaker and Distiller, Accounts, 1760-1783, Manheim Township, York County; Tulpehocken Church Records, 1730-1800: Christ (Little Tulpehocken) Church and the Altalaha Church at Rehrersburg; and Records of Pastoral Acts at Emmanuel Lutheran Church (the Warwick Congregation) near Brickerville, Lancaster County, 1743-1810. Some valuable past publications in their Series of the Pennsylvania German Society remain in print. These include, Pastors and People: German Lutheran and Reformed Churches in the Pennsylvania Field, 1717-1793, Volumes I and II; Eighteenth-Century Emigrants from German-Speaking Lands to North America, Volumes I and II; another volume that contains "Marriages Performed at the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Holy Trinity, Lancaster, Pennsylvania, 1748-1767"; and a volume that contains "Earliest Records of Holy Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church, Lancaster, 1730-1744". For prices of any of the above and a brochure listing other available publications, write to the society at the above Birdsboro address. Many publications of The Pennsylvania German Society have been very valuable and genealogists and historians who support such an organization will help make available similar future publications.

A history of North Codorus Township (York County, PA) is presently being compiled. Plans are to complete the history by January 1988. At present no price or other details about the book are available. Any SCPGS members interested in purchasing a copy of the finished book should do the following. Send a letter to North Codorus Township (R. D. 1, Box 1102, Spring Grove, PA 17362) requesting that, when available, information about the township history be sent to you. Make certain to include a SASE. Your letter of interest should reach the township office by September 1.

Catharine S. Chandler (4725 Montgomery Ave., Downers Grove, IL 60515) has sent the following additional information regarding the King family as given in the NOTES of this newsletter's issue of April 1987. "Apparently Robert King, 1705-1764, was married first to an unknown wife. The family Bible lists only his and Ann McLaughlin's children, but his will in the Lancaster County Courthouse names his daughter Susannah, wife of John Cunningham, and their children Robert and Elizabeth Cunningham. Susannah's tragic death on 26 July 1764 is told in The Indian Wars of Pennsylvania by Chester Hale Sipe, 1929. Her half-brother, Rev. John King, also mentioned it in his autobiography in Alfred Nevin's Churches of the Valley, 1852".

Mrs. Chandler is also a descendant of Andrew Armstrong who died 2 November 1872, Chanceford Township, York County, PA. An important document related to the settling of his estate was published in SCPGS Special Publication #7. Mrs. Chandler supplements that document with the following information. "The original document shows Daniel and John Armstrong as twins - sons of Andrew and his 2nd wife Elliner. This is not correct. The twins were Martin and Daniel, both born 1750/51, as proved by Martin's tombstone in the cemetery at Airville, and Daniel's Revolutionary War record. Incidentally, both died in 1815. John, my ancestor, was born 1756/57 - the date written that way because of the change in the calendar - and verified by the entry in the Bible of his son, (John Armstrong, 1793-1865), which reads, 'John Armstrong Sr. died Oct. 23, 1823 aged 65' ". As Mrs. Chandler writes, "County clerks are not infallible". Mrs. Chandler also notes that "Elliner, Andrew Armstrong's 2nd wife, was an Elliot, a fact always known among the descendants of John Armstrong and some of Daniel's. Elliot has been used as a first name in the family".

Our Quaker Ancestors, by Ellen Thomas Berry and David Allen Berry, has been published by Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc. (1001 N. Calvert St., Baltimore, MD 21202). The 136 page book costs $17.50 with postage and handling an additional $2. MD residents need to add 5% sales tax. The volume is said to acquaint the researcher with the types of records for Quakers that are available, the location of the records, and the proper and effective use of those records, guiding the researcher through the pyramidal "meeting" structure to the records of birth, marriage, death, disownment and removal.

Roy H. Wampler (4620 N. Park Ave., Apt. 1006E, Chevy Chase, MD 20815) has authored The Derr Family: 1750-1986, With Allied Families of Baker, Flook, Hoover, Koogle, Long, Metzger, Smith, Templing, Toms, Yaste, and Youtsey. Although this book deals mainly with families who established roots in western Maryland in the latter part of the 18th century, some of the Derrs previously lived in Lancaster, York, and other counties of Pennsylvania. Thirty pages portray the family of the immigrant Joh. Georg Metzger (d. 1811) who had settled near Manchester, York County, PA, by 1770 and who was affiliated with Quickel's Church. This 530 page, illustrated, indexed book is available for $40 from the author at the above address. MD residents need to add 5% for sales tax.

Carroll County, Maryland, Marriage Licenses 1837-1899 has been compiled by Genealogy Department Volunteers of the Carroll County Public Library. The price is $20 by mail. Order from Carroll County Public Library (50 E. Main St., Westminster, MD 21157).

John W. Heisey (728 S. George St., York, PA 17403) has the following books for sale. Add $1 per book for postage and handling. The year of publication, the number of pages, and the price is listed for each item.
