FROM THE DESK OF THE PRESIDENT -- SOME GENEALOGICAL TIPS

Printed Genealogies. Don't forget to check if there has been anything printed on the surname that you are seeking. A person doing a printed genealogy has spent a large amount of time and tried to make their work accurate. However, mistakes will happen. Assume that a book is correct until you can prove differently. Remember that you too can be an author, as a printed genealogy assures that your work will be continued.

In our December tips, I made several comments about computers. One member, Richard Carns of Chicago, Illinois, wrote and recommended the use of "Roots III". He said that you could write a book with this program using the Record or Register format. Another member, Ray Nagle of Albuquerque, NM, wrote and recommended the LDS genealogy program "Personal Ancestral File" and the word processing program of "Wordperfect 5.0". He also mentioned the fact that today there are many dot matrix printers that do print a very readable letter. I believe that in the world of computers, it is difficult to keep up with all the things that are available and I thank these gentlemen for their input.

HIVELY'S GENEALOGICAL NOTES

Descendants of Jacob Barkley and Veronica Hauer of Somerset Co., PA is available from the author, Louise B. Covalt (10247 Hutton Dr., Sun City, AZ 85351). The hardback book, with 249 pages, contains maps and illustrations and is indexed. The cost is $30. The purpose of the book was to locate as many descendants of Jacob and Veronica to 1900 as possible. There is a chapter on each of their twelve children. Before going to Somerset County, the family lived in York County, PA. Other lines included are Hauer-Howard, Gohn-Coon, Barron, Porch, Countryman, Friedline, Miller and Weimer.

Sadler's Luther Church 1789-1989, Stewartstown, Pennsylvania has been compiled by Elmer W. Orwig. The church is located in the northwestern part of Hopewell Township, York County. The hardback, 200-page, indexed book is available for $20 plus $1.50 for shipping and handling from Elmer W. Orwig (53 E. Tolna Road, Shrewsbury, PA 17361). Checks should be made payable to Sadler's Lutheran Church. There is some early history of the congregation, including some family information on the trustees on the original warrant -- Francis Winemiller, Conrad Miller and John Ebaugh. Reproduced in the book are the baptisms (both Lutheran and Reformed), from 1792-1834 as translated by Henry James Young. There are a few baptisms listed for 1841-1863. There are numerous pastoral records listed from 1895 to the present. There is an alphabetical list of known persons buried in Sadler's Cemetery from 1779 to 1989.

For a list of publications available from the Western Pennsylvania Genealogical Society (4338 Bigelow Boulevard, Pittsburgh, PA 15213) send a SASE and request the list. Among the available items are Pittsburgh Gazette abstracts from 1787 through 1811; Every Name Index to Fayette Co., PA Atlas of 1872; Allegheny Co. Naturalizations 1798-1906; and Allegheny Co. Marriages; Ministers Marriage Returns 1875 - 1906.

Volume II, Catholic Trails West, The Founding Catholic Families of Pennsylvania has been privately published by Barbara Brady O'Keefe and Edmund Adams. This Volume II deals with Conewago Chapel (Adams County), Goshenhoppen (Berks County), St. Mary's (Lancaster), St. Michael's (Loretto) and St. Vincent's (Latrobe). Volume II contains an index for both Volume I and Volume II. (Volume I primarily covered St. Joseph's at Philadelphia.) The cost for Volume II is $30 plus $2 for postage and handling. Both volumes may be ordered for $49.95 plus $3.75 for postage and handling. They may be ordered from Barbara O'Keefe (2120 S. W. 127 Avenue, Miami, FL 33175).

The PA Chapter, Palatines to America, has published 1833 Thru 1906, Palatine Emigrants from Edenkoben to North America. Edenkoben is located in the Rheinland

Pfalz, West Germany. Herr Pfarrer Alfred Hans Kuby of Edenkoben donated his research to the PA Chapter for publication. The information in the book includes the date of emigration, the destination (mostly general, but some listings give specific states or cities), and often the occupation. Included in the indexed, 98-page, soft-cover publication are several old pictures of Edenkoben, a colored reproduction of the town seal, the town wine song, and a map locating Edenkoben. Non-members of the PA Chapter can purchase the publication for $8.00 plus $2.00 for shipping and handling. PA residents need to add 48 cents for sales tax. Orders should be sent to PA Chapter, Palatines to America (P. O. Box 535, Mechanicsburg, PA 17055-0535).

The Clinton County (PA) Historical Society has introduced a "Clinton County Pioneer" program. A researcher can register any person who resided in Clinton County during the county's first 100 years (1839 - 1939). To request application materials, write to Clinton County Pioneer Program (Clinton County Historical Society, Heisey Museum, 362 East Water Street, Lock Haven, PA 17745). Include a business size SASE. The society has also started a genealogical library and would appreciate donations of family group sheets, copies of Bible records, and other material relating specifically to Clinton County or generally to central and northeastern PA.

The following data and info was received after a query was printed in March, 1989, newsletter at the top of page 6. Oral tradition, that William McKIM was told that his fath. "took off" and that his moth. had no way to support her children so they had to be put in the Children's Home. Since there is no spelling for HEIMAN, I have turned to BANKERT and many of you live in Spring Grove area, which I cannot locate. Why? Zip Code has Spring Grove, 17362, however my 1876 York Atlas has no such PO, however I recall Gladfelter's Paper Mill and now I see on my 1988 PA map it is Spring Grove. Since some 11 listings from phone directory are there, I consider this my "best bet." Let me know if anyone every heard of Anna BANKERT mar. to Howard B. HEIMAN and if I could be directed to a person that will help me find her children. The bottom line is William McKIM waited till his adopted parents passed away before starting to look for his supposed to be five bros. and at least one sister. I see that Spring Garden Twp. borders City of York, so perhaps York R. D. might help. Please help me find these children.
