OUR NAME'S THE GAME

Monthly Newsletter of the South Central Pennsylvania Genealogical Society, Inc.

Vol. 10 No. 10 May, 1985

LOOKING AHEAD

2 JUNE - Our June meeting will be held in the Meeting Hall of The Historical Society of York County. Business portion of the meeting will begin at 2:15 p.m. and the program at 2:30. The Rev. William T. Swaim, retired Presbyterian Minister residing in Harrisburg, PA, will be our guest speaker. His main areas of interest are in both ecclesiastical and secular history, especially of the Cumberland Valley in the 1730's. Rev. Swaim's presentation is titled: Slow Beginnings, Long Delays, and Few Documents on the Pennsylvania Frontier in the 1700's.

1985-86 CANDIDATES FOR OFFICERS AND DIRECTOR-AT-LARGE

The Slate of Candidates prepared by the Nominating Committee was presented by Ms. Joan L. Klingler, Chairperson, during the business portion of our May meeting. No nominations were presented from the floor. As called for in the By-Laws of the Society, the election to fill the vacant positions will take place during the business portion of our ANNUAL MEETING on 2 June 1985. The candidates are as follows:

ONE YEAR TERM

President - Patricia A. Gross
Vice-President - David P. Hively
Recording Secretary - Lois N. Ayers
Corresponding Secretary - Betty J. Brown

TWO YEAR TERM

Treasurer - L. Richard Bushman
Director-At-Large - Elizabeth T. Keller

THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF YORK COUNTY

HIVELY'S GENEALOGICAL NOTES

SCPGS and DAR member Lois Davidson has provided the information on the following conference. From June 11-14, 1985, the "New Englanders and Patriots Conference" presented by the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution and the New England Historic Genealogical Society will meet at the NSDAR Administration Building (1776 D St., NW, Washington, D.C. 20006-5392). The Conference will focus on New Englanders--where they lived, to where they migrated, and their patriotic or civil affiliations. The program is planned for intermediate and advanced genealogists. Lecturers will include Lloyd Bockstruck, David Dearborn, Ed Hanson, George Sanborn, Graham Smallwood, Kip Sperry, Bruce Thompson, James D. Walker, and Virginia Steele Wood. Registration fee of $50 is payable to Treasurer General, NSDAR, and should be mailed to NSDAR--GENES at the Washington address above. The conference is limited to 200 persons.

Issue Number 28 (Volume VII, No. 4) of the Germanic Genealogist (published by The Augustan Society, Inc., Post Office Box P, Torrance, CA 90507-0210) contains a thirty-four page article with numerous references titled "Historic Connections of the Descendants of William Weyerman-Weirman of Pennsylvania". Written by Robert Joseph Curfman, the article traces William Weyerman from Germantown and Skippack to what is now Huntington Township, Adams County, PA. Numerous descendants are listed as having lived in that region. (The publication does not indicate if back issues are available but a request with SASE to the above address should provide such information. A subscription is $15 for four issues.)

Estate Inventories: How To Use Them is available from Kennth L. Smith (523 S. Weyant Avenue, Columbus, OH 43213) at a price of $10 plus $1.50 for postage and handling. About half of the pages of the 100 page soft bound booklet contain a glossary. Among the tables are some with these titles: "Exchange Rate for Colonial Currency vs. Pound Sterling"; "Exchange Rate for Pennsylvania Currency vs. Pound Sterling"; "Factors for Converting to 1982 Dollars".

To join the Crislip/Chrislip/Christlieb Family Association send $2 to the editor of the newsletter, Ned Crislip (Box 57, Ridge Road, Glens Falls, NY 12801). The Christlieb parents and sons are believed to have arrived in Baltimore in 1765 from the Durkheim area of southern Germany. They settled at what is now Newville in Cumberland County, PA.

Researchers who are interested in the Bahn, Libhart, and Harbaugh and related families of Hellam Township, York County, PA and who have not used Rachel Bahn's Annals of the Bahn, Libhart, and Harbaugh Families in America from 1731 .. to .. 1870 may find it's material of value. Copies may be found at The Historical Society of York County. Rachel Bahn was the noted PA German invalid poet.

The Washington Post has a classified advertising section on genealogy that appears on Sundays. Future dates on which the ads will appear are May 26, June 30, July 28, August 25 and Sept. 29, 1985. The categories are Ancestral Queries (persons born at least 100 years ago), Organizations, Family Reunions, Services, Supplies, Publishing--Companies & Materials. Additional information may be had by writing to GENELOGY, Classified Advertising Dept., THE WASINGTON POST (1150 15th St., NW, Washington, D.C. 20071-6010) or by calling Toll Free 1-800-624-2367, ext. 7031 or 6200.

The records of the Reformed Church of Shepherdstown, West Virginia indicate a relationship between some families listed in those records and York County, PA, families. (Shepherdstown is in Jefferson County, WV and across the Potomac from Washington County, Maryland). According to a translation of this church record (denoted as Washington County, MD Church Record Number 16) in the library of the Maryland Historical Society at Baltimore, there is the following specifically noted York County, PA, connection involving Abraham Carl and his family.

"Abraham Carl and his wife had a daughter baptized, born on January 26, 1776; her name is Barbara, in Newberry Township, Pennsylvania, York County. Sponsors: Gerret Hummel and wife, Barbara.

A son born May 20, 1778; his name is George, in Newberry Township, Pennsylvania, York County. Sponsors: Johann George Beyer and wife Elizabeth.

A son born April 16, 1780; his name is Abraham, in Newberry Township, Pennsylvania, York County. Sponsors: Johann George Beyer and wife Elizabeth.

A son born April 18, 1782; his name is Jacob, in Newberry Township, Pennsylvania. Sponsors: Jacob Leidig and Elizabeth Beyersin.

A son born May 18, 1784; his name is Johannis, in Newberry Township, Pennsylvania. Sponsors: His parents.

A son born September 2, 1785; his name is Conrad, in Scheppertstown, Virginia. Sponsors: His parents.

A daughter born June 3, 1791 in Scheppertstown, Virginia, her name is Margaretha. Sponsors: George Gebhard and wife Margaretha.

A son born April 2, 1793 in Scheppertstown, Virginia, his name is Henrich. Sponsors: -------

A son born November 20, 1795, his name is Michael. Sponsors: Michael Delorack and wife Margaretha.

A son born ----? 1799; his name is Solomon. Sponsor: Barbara Eckertin."

This same church record contains numerous entries on members of a Staley family. York County records and Federal Pension Records almost certainly confirm that this is the Staley family with members Jacob, Daniel, and Peter who were of Chanceford Township, York County, PA, and who moved to the Shepherdstown area during the Revolutionary War.

Has any SCPGS member done enough research on the families with entries in the register of the Reformed Church of Shepherdstown to know if other such families were from York County, PA? (A thank you to SCPGS member Jean Bonham who informed me of the York County reference in the Abraham Carl family entries.)

Charles Recker (819 Franklin Ave., Las Vegas, Nevada 89104) has prepared a bibliography of published materials about the Moser/Mosier/Mosser/Musser immigrants to PA, and their descendants. A copy will be sent for SASE.

The Report 39 A Journal of German-American History (1984), published by the Society for the History of the Germans in Maryland, (P.O. Box 22585, Baltimore, MD 21203) contains an interesting ten page article "Feeding the Palatines: Shipboard Diet in the Eighteenth Century" by the editor Klaus Wust. For information on purchasing the issue send an inquiry with SASE to the above address.

Congratulations to The Historical Society of York County (PA) which last month celebrated ninety years of its own history! The library collections of the society have been and will continue to be a great benefit to genealogists. We wish The Historical Society a successful "second ninety".
