LOOKING AHEAD

7 JUNE - Because the "temporary" library will be located in the meeting hall, the June meeting of the SCPGS can NOT be at the usual site, The Historical Society of York County. Instead the meeting will be in the Mary Young Auditorium of Asbury United Methodist Church. This church is located at 340 East Market Street, York, PA, and is about one block east of The Historical Society of York County. It is located on the same side of the street as the historical society. The doors of the church will be opened about 2:00 p.m. for our meeting. Parking can be done in the lot on the west side of the church. This lot is entered from Market Street. If this lot becomes full, pass through it, cross over Reinecke Place, and park on that lot. Enter the church from Market Street, using the door nearest the parking lot west of the church. Business portion of the meeting will begin at 2:15 p.m. and the program at 2:30. Our speaker will be Mr. Michael A. Grimes, Archivist of Baltimore City Archives. Mr. Grimes received his B.A. in History from the University of Maryland and is presently working on his M.A. in History. Mr. Grimes' topic will be "Sources for Research at the Baltimore City Archives".

HIVELY'S GENEALOGICAL NOTES

The "temporary" library of The Historical Society of York County, PA, will be open to 8:30 p.m. on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings during the months of June, July, and August, 1987.

Researchers with interest in the early land history and families of Frederick County, MD, will find much useful information in the book, Pioneers of Old Monocacy -- The Early Settlement of Frederick County, Maryland 1721-1743. This work was known as the "Tracey Manuscript" and contains the years of research by Dr. Gracee Tracey and her father. John P. Dern prepared the manuscript for publication. Among the chapters are Early Explorers and Traders, Land Investors and Speculators, The Monocacy Area and its Roads, The Quakers at "Monoquesey", Arrival of the Germans, The Catholic Settlement, Monocacy Manor, and All Saints' Parish. There is much information on some of the early families. The hard cover book contains 442 pages and is published by Genealogical Publishing Company, Inc. (1001 N. Calvert St., Baltimore, MD 21202). The cost is $37.50 plus $2 for postage and handling. MD residents need to add 5% sales tax.

Dauphin County Tombstone Inscriptions, Volumes I and II, can be purchased from Oscar H. Stroh (1531 Fishing Creek Valley Road, Harrisburg, PA 17112). Volume I contains 208 pages and covers 58 cemeteries with about 9,000 recorded inscriptions, many recorded as much as 100 years ago and not legible today. The soft cover edition is $18 and the hard cover edition is $30. Volume II contains 175 pages and covers 18 cemeteries with over 7,000 inscriptions in the upper half of Dauphin County. At this time only the soft cover edition is available and it costs $16. PA residents must include the 6% sales tax. For one or both volumes add $1.75 for packing and shipping.

SCPGS member Max A. Campbell (P.O. Box 1028, Wauchula, FL 33873) has compiled a book The Ancestral Lineage of Matthew Campbell and Sophia (Barton) Campbell. The family is traced to a John Campbell of Windsor Township, York County, PA, whose will was probated in 1775. Most of the children of this John Campbell moved to Washington County, PA. The son William was born in 1739 in York County and married Elizabeth Evans, daughter of Edward and Rachel Evans. Anyone interested in this family or in a copy of the book should write to Mr. Campbell.

SCPGS member Barbara Brady O'Keefe (2120 S.W. 127 Ave., Miami, FL 33175) has initiated a PA Catholic Clearing House. All data is entered in her computer genealogy program. Over four thousand names, mainly from Conewago, Goshenhoppen and Loretto families, have been entered so far. If interested, send your charts. For information on a name, send $1 and a SASE.

Peggy Shomo Joyner (5008 Dogwood Trail, Portsmouth, VA 23703) has completed her series on Northern Neck Surveys, 1722-1781. Volume IV is Abstracts of Virginia's Northern Neck Warrants & Surveys: Hampshire, Berkeley, Loudoun, Fairfax, King George, Westmoreland, Richmond, Northumberland, Lancaster Counties 1697-1784. This soft cover, 225 page volume contains the warrant and survey abstracts of the nine counties, Guy Broadwater's 1749 surveys on New and Sleepy Creeks and at Warm Springs, abstracts of copies of 22 wills of Northern Neck residents from "Wills from Land Office Records", the "Jonathan Clark Notebook, 1786", a place name index to all four volumes of the series, and a full name index. The cost is $25 postpaid.

A press release of some weeks ago from Heritage Books, Inc. (3602 Maureen Lane, Suite 220, Bowie, MD 20715) offered one complimentary copy per household of a twelve page brochure, "Genealogical Periodicals: A Neglected Treasure", by Laird C. Towle. The booklet explains what is available in periodicals and how to access it through a variety of published indexes. Copies may still be available.

Anyone studying Pennsylvania canals and persons associated with the canals may be interested in knowing that a John Brohal and a John Campbell of York County, PA, owned boats in partnership.. John Brohal wrote his will 12 February 1848. It was probated 8 May 1848. The inventory of his estate is dated 15 May 1848 and notes the items held in partnership: a canal boat called the "Messenger", a canal boat called the "Forest Flower", stock or fixtures on said boats (bedding, etc.), five horses and one mule. A supplemental item notes "1 chest & stove, 4 picters, & a few books". By his will John Brohal gives legacies to his niece Anna Brohal of Baltimore County, MD, and to his eldest brother, Owen Brohal, of County Kildare, Ireland. Executors named were his partner, John Campbell, and Superintendent of Tide Water Canal, Daniel F. Shure, Harford County, MD. Mr. Shure declined to serve as an executor. (Although his will is signed "John Brohal" and it is indexed under that name, the body of the will gives the name as Broughan.)
