LANCASTER CO., PA

Lois Ann Zook Mast, Rt. 1, Box 28, Elverson, PA, 19520, has recently published an Index to the 1875 Historical Atlas of Lancaster County, PA. The 18,200 name index includes every name, creek, town, church, and school found in the 1875 atlas. It is 166 pages long, plus 2 charts - one listing the number of blacksmith shops, cemeteries, churches, etc., and the other lists the number of church denominations found on each township map. Also included is a chart giving the page numbers for each township, thus enabling the researcher to correlate a page number with the township.

Cost, including postage, is $9.00.

CHAMBERLAIN FAMILY

The Chamberlain Association of America, 131 East 78th Street-E, New York, NY, 10021 has been reactivated. A newsletter is published by the Association to list queries about Chamberlain ancestors. Annual dues vary - Active $10.00 - Contributing $25.00 - Sustaining $50.00.

"Papers" of the Association were in storage for 39 years. In 1979, they were remo. ed from storage to the New York Genealogical & Biographical Society, where they are currently being indexed. Indexing will take about 2 yrs. to complete. The "papers" will then be available for use by Association members.

If you have Chamberlain ancestors and are interested in finding out more about this Association, write (SASE) to the above address.

BERKS COUNTY, PA

If you have ancestors connected with the Tulpehocken Settlement of Berks Co., PA, you might be interested in obtaining a copy of "250 Year History Christ Little Tulpehocken Church, Jefferson Twp, Berks Co., PA, 1730-1980." This 56 page history is available for $4.75 (postage included). While the most valuable part of the book is probably the 6 pages of burials (about 700) for the old and new cemetery, the entire history is both interesting and informative. To order: Herman M. Lutz, East Penn Ave., Robesonia, PA, 19551.

NOTICE TO MEMBERS

We have received three volunteers to help type the column of numbers in the Brossman Index Project. But we have a problem, there are two people who do not have typewriters. Therefore, if anybody has typewriters (2 of them) they could loan to us for this project. Please contact the society at our address on the head of the newsletter.
